ECF No. 1122. The Sixth Fee Application was granted by entry of the Order Granting Sixth Interim Application for Compensation, ECF No. 1178.

15. Tavenner & Beran is still owed $531,584.91 in connection with the approved application.

16. As authorized in the Tavenner & Beran Employment Order, the terms of Tavenner & Beran’s employment are as follows: Tavenner & Beran charges legal fees on an hourly basis at its attorney and paraprofessional hourly rates, which are set in accordance with the attorneys’ seniority and experience. Tavenner & Beran also charges the Chapter 7 Estate for its actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred such as copying, postage, filing fees and other disbursements.

17. The names of all Tavenner & Beran’s staff requesting compensation and their respective hourly rates are set forth on Exhibit A attached hereto.

18. As indicated on Exhibit A, Tavenner & Beran did not bill all of the actual time incurred in connection with certain settlement conferences and mediations. And, as further identified on Exhibit A, Tavenner & Beran has not charged the Estate for time consulting/advising/corresponding with the Trustee. In this instance, this has saved the Estate over $81,000 in the time period covered by this Application. While $81,000 is a substantial sum of money for a firm the size of Tavenner & Beran, the firm is willing to forego the same as yet another of its efforts to provide for efficient administration of bankruptcy cases and to provide a greater return for creditors. Furthermore, as indicated on Exhibit A, Tavenner & Beran did not bill all of the actual time incurred in connection with certain settlement conferences, mediations, and other matters.

19. In addition, the Application includes no charges to the Estate for any legal services performed by the Trustee as a practicing attorney at Tavenner & Beran. While such time has been expended, the Trustee and Tavenner & Beran desire a clear line of demarcation between administrative and legal time and the firm is willing to forego such legal charges as yet another of its efforts to provide for efficient administration of bankruptcy cases and to provide a greater return for creditors.

20. To the best of Tavenner & Beran's knowledge, information and belief, the Chapter 7 Estate has paid all post-Conversion Date expenses in the ordinary course and/or as required by this Court with the exception of (a) certain professional fees and (b) amounts potentially owed for document storage largely related to client files. Tavenner & Beran understands that the Chapter 7 Trustee will likely not have sufficient unrestricted funds on hand to immediately pay all of the compensation and reimbursement of expenses requested herein and amounts due and owing (after approval by this Court) to all professionals. Tavenner & Beran will work with the Trustee on payments consistent with availability, as well as consistent with the cash collateral orders of this Court.

21. Tavenner & Beran understands that the amounts in the Trustee's possession are as follows: $9,117,646.69 (Signature Bank), $164,404.97 (Operating Account – HSBC); $954,692.37 (commonly referred to as CAPE account); and $299,775.36 (Virginia IOLTA).

22. To the best of Tavenner & Beran's knowledge, the Chapter 7 Trustee has filed and/or otherwise provided all requisite reports with this Court.

23. Other than the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Fee Application, Tavenner & Beran has not previously filed an application for the allowance of compensation and expense reimbursement. The Chapter 7 Trustee has been provided the time records attached as Exhibit A.

26. The total amount of compensation requested by Tavenner & Beran is based on the hourly rates normally charged by the attorneys and paraprofessionals who performed legal services for the Chapter 7 Trustee in this matter are further summarized on Exhibit A.

27. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a summary sheet concerning the fees charged in this Application. The fees sought by Tavenner & Beran are reasonable for the work it performed in the area of bankruptcy services. Such fees are customary and are comparable, if not less, in amount to similar services rendered by other attorneys in the area. The fees sought herein are reasonable considering the nature and extent of the work, the time spent, and the value of the services.

Applicable Legal Standard

28. The Bankruptcy Code sets forth the legal standards for awarding compensation to professionals. The format for fee applications is set forth in the Compensation Guidelines for Professionals in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Virginia.

29. Under § 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court may award Tavenner & Beran reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by such attorneys and paraprofessionals employed by such law firm based on the nature, extent, and value of the services rendered, time spent on such services and the cost of comparable services other than in a bankruptcy case. Furthermore, the Court may award reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.

30. Under the “lodestar” approach, the Court should consider the number of hours of service reasonably devoted to the case multiplied by reasonable rates. Courts frequently consider the specific lodestar factors enumerated in Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir. 1974). These lodestar tests were adopted by the Fourth Circuit in Barber v. Kimbrells, Inc., 577 F.2d 216, 226 (4th Cir.), cert. denied, 439 U.S. 934 (1978), and in Anderson v. Morris, 658 F.2d 246, 249 (4th Cir. 1981), where the Fourth Circuit held that the District Court should employ the lodestar approach, and then adjust the fee on the basis of the remaining Johnson factors in the case. The following are the Johnson factors:

- (a) the time and labor required;
- (b) the novelty and difficulty of the questions;
- (c) the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly;
- (d) the preclusion of other employment by the attorney due to acceptance of the case;

- (e) the customary fee;
- (f) whether the fee is fixed or contingent;
- (g) time limitations imposed by the client or the circumstances;
- (h) the amount involved and the results obtained;
- (i) the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorneys;
- (j) the “undesirability” of the case;
- (k) the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and
- (l) awards in similar cases.

Johnson, 488 F.2d at 717-719; Barber, 577 F.2d at 226, n.28; Anderson, 658 F.2d at 248, n.2.

31. Tavenner & Beran believes that the services rendered to the Chapter 7 Trustee and the Estate were necessary and reasonable in view of the Case and the scope and nature of the matters in which the Chapter 7 Trustee required competent representation.

32. Upon information and belief, the rates charged by Tavenner & Beran are comparable to, if not less than, fees charged by other law firms retained in similar capacities in comparable Chapter 7 cases. Tavenner & Beran believes that the fees requested herein clearly satisfy the Johnson factors as set forth above.

Conclusion

WHEREFORE, Tavenner & Beran submits this Seventh Interim Application of Tavenner & Beran, PLC for Allowance of Compensation and Expense Reimbursement as Counsel to the Chapter 7 Trustee and the Estate in the amount of $244,953.00 for fees and $14,623.29 for expenses for a total of $259,576.29. Tavenner & Beran respectfully requests that the Court enter an Order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C approving the compensation requested herein, authorizing, but not directing, the Chapter 7 Trustee to pay such amounts and granting such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,
